

FROM OCT 1, PAY BMC TAXES AT YOUR DOORSTEP

BHOPAL: From October 1, Bhopal Municipal Corporation will start the service of handheld devices in each one of the 70 wards so that BMC officials can realise due taxes - property tax and water cess- at the very doorsteps of the residents and provide them on the spot receipts.

Urban administration minister Babulal Gaur, along with BMC council chairperson Kailash Mishra, inaugurated the service while dedicating the new citizen facilitation centre at Pul Bogda, which falls under zone 8. With this new addition, now there are seven citizen facilitation centres in Bhopal where residents can submit their due taxes, apply for various services and schemes of the Corporation.

The other citizen facilitation centres are located at Sheetla Mata Mandir New Market, Indrapuri office building in zone 13, Mangalwara in Zone 4, Kamla Park in zone 5, Shivaji Nagar in zone 10 and BMC's building permission office near Shahpura lake.
